

100 Bible Chapters relating Jesus' second coming

by David Sliker

Of course, the book of Revelation covers 22 chapters - but that may be cheating.

Many chapters have a dual focus, but have their fullest expression at the end of the age, such as Deuteronomy 28 & 32-33.

Psalms 2, 10, 24, 36, 45 - 48, 68, 83, 91, 102, 110, 118, and 149 and others either are speaking directly about the end of the age or have significant ET application; you could make a case for Psalms 120-134 as well.

Isaiah 2, 4, 6, 8-9, 11-14, 24-28, 34-35, 40, 54-56, 60-66 all speak about the end of the age, and you could make a strong case for many other passages in Isaiah, of course. (I think we're up to 68...)

Jeremiah 23, 30-31, 33 are the main ones, but again there are others; Ezekiel 20:33-44, 34, 36-48; and I'm sure others could add to that as well...

Daniel is the main end-times book in the Old Testament - you could argue for the inclusion of the entire book, but of course, the main section is contained in chapters 7-12...

Many of the "Minor Prophets" have what is known as "near/far" prophetic application - in other words, there is immediate application in the preaching of these prophets to the people of that day - but there is a greater fulfillment at the end of the age.

Hosea 1-3, 5:13-6:3, & 14; Joel 1-3; Amos 3, 5, 9; Obadiah 15-21; Micah 4-5; 7; Nahum 1; Habakkuk 3; Zephaniah 3; Zechariah 1-8, 12-14; Malachi 4...

I think we're up to 122 chapters...onto the New Testament:

Matthew 13, 22, 23:37 - 25:46, 28:16-20; Mark 4, 13; Luke 21; John 1:43-51; 17...

Romans 9-11; 1 Corinthians 15; Ephesians 1-3; Colossians 1; 1 Thessalonians 4-5; 2 Thessalonians 2; 1 Timothy 4; 2 Timothy 3-4:1-5; 1 Peter 1, 4; 2 Peter 3...

I think we hit about 148 chapters (counting the initial 22 chapters of Revelation), and you could make the case for many more passages that I overlooked. I did not count those 15 chapters of Psalms (120-134). It will take some labor to unfold some of those passages to find their end-time application, others will be more obvious. Hope that helps!
